Oswald Figure Is Killed

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 18 (AP) —The taxi driver who picked up Lee Harvey Oswald shortly after Oswald killed President Kennedy died today in the collision of his cab and another automobile. He was William Wayne Whaley, 60 years old, of Lewisville, a Dallas suburb. The driver of the other car, John Henry Wells, 83, of Dallas, also was killed. Mr. Whaley's passenger, Maurice R. Barnes Jr. of Salt Lake City, was seriously injured.
